Ways to Give

Credit Card Gifts

Go to www.nvrh.org/westwing and make your donation...either a one-time charge or a monthly/quarterly/annual recurring charge.

Check

Write a paper check and send it to the Philanthropy Department. If making pledge payments over time, we'll send you reminders.

Appreciated Assets

Do you have stocks or bonds that have appreciated (gained value) over time? You can donate those directly to NVRH, get the full tax write-off for the current value, and not pay any capital gains like you would if you cashed the stock in for personal use.

IRA Charitable Distribution

If you are 70^{1/2} or older, you can make an IRA charitable distribution directly to NVRH (as part of your required minimum distribution) and the gift won't be counted as taxable income...you pay no tax on the gift!

Not Sure What's Best for You?
