

NEK FOOD ACCESS DIRECTORY

Spring-Summer
'23
Edition

3SquaresVT

3SquaresVT can help you put healthy foods on your table every day! Wondering if you are eligible or want help applying? Text VFBSNAP to 85511 or call 855-855-6181, or for 60+ only call 800-642-5119.

Meals on Wheels Program

Are you age 60 or older? You may be eligible to receive home-delivered meals through the Meals on Wheels program. Call NEK Council on Aging at 800-642-5119 to register.

Senior Meals

Senior Meals sites are open to all. While there is no charge for anyone age 60+, there is a suggested donation which varies by meal site. Guests under age 60 are charged a guest fee. See Directory listings for locations.

VCIL

Vermont Center for Independent Living's (VCIL) Meals on Wheels program provides meals to Vermonters (age 60 and under) that are experiencing serious illness, injury, or disability. This program assures that people who are unable to prepare their own meals and/or have no help with meal preparation get healthy meals. Meals are provided short or long-term depending on need. 1-800-639-1522, or www.vcil.org

Commodity Supplemental Food Program

If you're 60 or older, you can save money on groceries and still eat the foods you love. The Commodity Supplemental Food Program provides a free box of food each month, which you can pick up at a designated location. Enroll by calling 1-800-214-4648 or go to vtfoodbank.org/share-food/csfp.

WIC (Women, Infants, and Children)

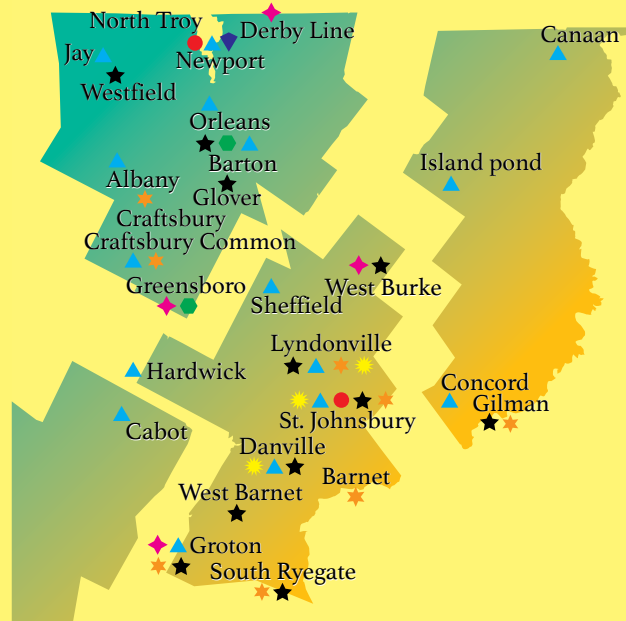

WIC provides healthy foods, nutrition education, breastfeeding support, and referrals for Vermonters who are pregnant, new parents and children up to age 5. Visit healthvermont.gov/wic to learn more and start your application online. Call the Newport office at 800-952-2945, or the St. Johnsbury office at 800-952-2936.

Head Start/Early Head Start

Children receive healthy meals and snacks while attending Head Start/Early Head Start programs that provide education-based skills to help children become confident and excited learners. Services are free for all eligible families. For more information, call 802-525-3362.

Dial 2-1-1 or go to vermont211.org for additional resources
